BRITAIN ORDERS MOBILIZATION

Speeds Evacuation of 3 Million

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Aug. 31 (INS)—Great Britain today decreed virtually full mobilization, raising the army, navy and air force to wartime status.

At the same time, arrangements were made for evacuation of approximately 3,000,000 persons from congested areas of England tomorrow.

At an emergency meeting of defense ministers of the British cabinet, the following measures were decided upon: 1—Complete naval mobilization. 2—The calling up of the remainder of the regular army reserve and the supplementary reserves. 3—The summoning of additional members of the Royal Air Force volunteer reserve.

An official communique issued from 10 Downing st. declared:

"In continuance of measures already adopted, it has been decided to complete naval mobilization and call up the remainder of the regular army reserve and the supplementary reserve.

CALL HUGE NAVY

"A further number of Royal Air Force volunteer reserve will also be called up.

"Officers and men should await further instructions, which will be made public immediately by each service department."

The announcement meant that the great British fleet had been mobilized 100 per cent, but there is not yet complete mobilization of the other defense arms. The reserves, however, have been called up to their maximum.

The new military moves followed by only a few hours evacuation orders and announcement that the Stock Exchange would be closed tomorrow—and possibly longer as a result of transportation disruption expected as 1,300,000 persons are moved out of the British capital.

No date was fixed for the reopening of the Exchange although the governing committee yesterday expressed the hope trading could be resumed immediately after whatever period might be required for evacuation.

RED COUP PLANNED BY HITLER

BERLIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Adolf Hitler was reported today to be ready to play a Russian trump card in an effort to convince the Poles they should come to Berlin and negotiate.

The Russian councilor of embassy called at the foreign office while hints were spread that unless Poland bows to pressure being put upon her, Hitler intends to announce some degree of military cooperation with the Soviets.

Should Hitler win Stalin over to actively assisting Germany militarily, Poland would find herself in a highly precarious position.

Further mobilization orders in Poland yesterday were interpreted by the Berlin government as the answer to efforts to force Poland to negotiate. Astonishment over the Polish move was professed in informed quarters which spoke about the possible military cooperation with Russia.

Meanwhile Hitler and Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop were preparing an answer to questions raised in the British message handed Von Ribbentrop early today by Sir Neville Henderson, British ambassador.

The British note, foreign office quarters said, was not in the nature of a reply to the latest German memorandum. Rather, they said, it asked several elucidating questions which Hitler now is answering.

Official quarters said the creation last night of a supreme de-

BULLETIN

BERLIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Authorized Germans said tonight that a "pause" had come about in crisis negotiations with Great Britain but that negotiations "are not broken off."

Announcement of full mobilization of the British fleet coming on top of Poland's extension of mobilization yesterday, these persons indicated, were at least partly responsible for the "pause."

As a result, it was uncertain whether British questions, put to Adolf Hitler by the British government in a memorandum handed to hte Fuehrer last night, would be answered.

Europe Today

Europe's "war of nerves" drew nearer today to the moment when it will be supplanted by a war of blood and iron or another breathing spell.

Great Britain ordered practically full mobilization, the army, navy and air forces being raised to wartime status. Three million persons, half of them school children, will be evacuated from congested areas tomorrow. Britain insisted the Danzig-Corridor question may be settled only by direct German-Polish negotiations. (On this page.)

Adding to the alarming symptoms that seem to indicate war, Soviet Russia was reported to be Hitler's trump card in attempting to convince the Poles they should go to Berlin to negotiate. Russian counselor of embassy called at German foreign office while hints were spread that Hitler may cooperation withe Moscow. (On this page.)

Italy announced division of her army into two parts. (Page 17.)

France decreed anti-air raid blackouts, continued removal of civilian population from Paris and took over nation's railways for the transport of troops. (Page 17.)

In Poland, scene of near-general mobilization of more than 2,000,000 men, an official communique said Germany's "policy of aggression" had "left no doubt but that Poland is endangered." (Page 13.)

Pope Pius XII summoned the papal secretary of state, Luigi Cardinal Maglione, to his summer palace, Castel Gandolfo. On his return to Vatican City, Cardinal Maglione handed what was reported to be a peace plea note to the ambassadors to the Holy See from Italy, France, Germany and Poland and to the British minister. (Page 14)

Nazi Patrols Cross Border Into Poland

WARSAW, Aug. 31 (AP)—Polish sources asserted tonight that German patrols had crossed the border into Polish territory at several points. They also asserted that a German bomber had flown over Polish Silesia and been pursued by Polish planes.

Reports from Danzig of what Poles called "new aggressive activity" by Danzig Nazis included one that all communications between the Free City and the Polish port of Gdynia had been cut.

Polish railway lines to Gdynia run through Danzig and already Free City Nazis had occupied all the railway stations in Danzig territory.

German 'Anti-War Revolt' Reported

LONDON, Aug. 31 (INS)—A sensational story in the London Daily Telegraph, which usually keeps its news on the conservative side, today declared that civilian morale in Germany has been seriously impaired as a result of the last few days' tension and the shortage of foodstuffs and other commodities.

The story, under a Copenhagen dateline, said feverish military preparations and the suppression of important news are causing a recoil in Germany.

Women in Berlin were said to be lying on railway tracks to prevent the departure of troop trains.

Many arrests have been made by the German secret police in the Rhineland, where mine workers and technical laborers are refusing to work on meager rations, according to the Telegraph.

Unconfirmed reports reached Copenhagen that troops in several German military centers mutinied, the paper asserted.

Stocks Slide On War Fear

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (INS)—Fresh nervousness over the European situation brought a further decline in the stock market today.

Trading continued at an extremely slow pace, but leaders dropped $1 to more than $3 a share.

HEADS HOSPITAL GROUP

LAKEWOOD, Me., Aug. 31 (AP)—Dr. Stephen S. Brown of Portland today was elected president of the Maine Hospital Association.

Hub Princess Kills Herself in New York

In a tiny New York Greenwich Village apartment today, the former Princess Clarissa Curtis Cantacuzene, 39-year-old daughter of Thomas Pelham Curtis of Boston's Back Bay social set, was found dead—a suicide.

The body of the Boston woman, whose marriage to Prince Michael Cantacuzene, great-grandson of the late President U. S. Grant, ended in divorce four years ago, was found propped against the kitchen door.

Five jets were turned full on in the gas stove of the tiny apartment.

In the fourth-floor walkup in West 11th st, it was plain that the one-time Clarissa P. Curtis' recent mode of living had been far removed from the splendor she once had known as a princess.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER

Police said they found no notes to indicate a motive, but that the case was one of suicide.

She had been employed recently, they also said, as a social service worker at the Seaman's Church Institute and had been living in the apartment for two years with two women friends.

Discovery of the tragedy was made at 5 a. m. by Miss Elizabeth Parker of West Cedar st, Beacon Hill, one of the women, and Dennis Bullock of Commerce st, New York, who had escorted Miss Parker home, they said, after a gay night out.

The couple called police, but after an hour's work to revive the former princess, an ambulance surgeon pronounced her dead.

TWO CHILDREN WITH PRINCE

A brother, Thomas Curtis of East 71st st, New York, who hastened to the apartment with friends upon being notified, formally identified the body.

He told police, they said, his sister had been in ill health and despondent for several months.

Her former husband, Prince Cantacuzene, whose mother was Julia Dent Grant who was born in the White House while Grant, her grandfather was president, is believed to be somewhere in the Middle West.

With him are understood to be the two children, Irina, 13, and Rodion, 11, whose custody he obtained when they parted.

The prince—who was called Spike Speransky while attending Harvard with the class of 1921—divorced the Boston society girl at Waukegan, Ill., on April 11, 1935, in a uncontested suit charging desertion.

In June, 1921, the couple had been married in one of the most brilliant international society events of that season.

In fact, the couple were mar-

BRIDE FINDS HIS EX-WIFE IN HOME

When her bridegroom took her to the Allston apartment she expected would be their honeymoon love-nest, another woman was there, Mrs. Mae H. Gregoire of Peterboro st, Back Bay, testified today in Suffolk court. She won annulment of her marriage.

Charles A. Gregoire, now of Tyngsboro, introduced the "other woman" as his divorced wife and sought to have her share the honeymoon apartment, Mrs. Gregoire told Judge William M. Prest.

ONE-DAY HONEYMOON

"There was an awful scene," the brunette wife testified. "This other woman told my husband he hadn't any right to marry me.

"He said everything would be straightened out all right and we'd all stay in the apartment together until it was.

"But I said I was going home. He'd have to straighten things out first before I'd live with him. Then I did go home, and stayed alone in my apartment in Peterboro st.

"We had been married that day in Nashua, N. H., and had dined and danced in a roadside place on our way back to Boston. That was all the honeymoon we ever had.

"Later I had a talk with my husband. He said his divorce from the woman I'd found in his apartment wasn't final yet. Anyhow, he said, she had no money and no place to go, and he was sorry for her."

3 OTHER DIVORCES

Judge Prest also granted divorce decrees on petitions of three wives who charged cruelty.

One plaintiff, Mrs. Florence M. Costa, testified she had obtained a previous decree nisi from Anthony G. Costa, but had subsequently become reconciled with him. It wasn't long, however, before he began beating her again, she said, so she left him for the second time.

She was granted the right to use her maiden name, Florence Murphy. Her present home is in South Boston.

Other divorces were obtained by Mrs. Emma Krassin of Blue Hill ave., Dorchester, and Mrs. Henry W. Murray of Atherton ave., Roslindale.

Vets Pledge Support To Neutrality, Trade

Moving toward the end of their convention stay here, the Veterans of Foreign Wars today took strong stands on two major subjects—neutrality and the right of American industry to mind its own business in its own way.

But both stands came as the result of floor fights, as delegates took exception to points made by guest speakers.

VETS TAKE SIDES

Regarding neutrality, most of the veterans ignored the plea of Assisting Secretary of War Louis Johnson, who demanded repeal of the neutrality acts, and embraced the declaration of Gen. Smedley Butler, veteran of every American campaign since the turn of the century.

Gen. Butler, one-time commander-in-chief of the Marine Corps, first to fight when America needs protection in a foreign field, told the convention that the only way to keep out of trouble abroad is to keep our financiers from getting a stake in a foreign quarrel.

And the way to do that, Gen. Butler said, is to prevent, by law, American manufacturers from getting a stake in a foreign quarrel through shipment of arms and munitions.

Butler advocated a policy of building up a national defense "so tight that even a rat couldn't crawl through."

Declaring the last world war cost this country $100,000,000, Butler shouted:

"And what the hell did anyone in this room get out of it?"

The veteran soldier advocated keeping in the hands of Congress the power to determine this country's stand in the event of war, adding that "those boys have to go home and face their constituents every two years and they'll do what the people want."

PENSION PLAN

Former National Commander-in-Chief James Van Zandt, congressman from Pennsylvania, swung the convention into line for a pension

HUB TAX CUT $1; TO BE $40.30

Mayor Tobin will announce tomorrow the 1939 tax rate for Boston as $40.30, exactly $1 less than last year, it was learned today.

Instead of announcing it tomorrow morning, as originally intended, the mayor will wait until late tomorrow evening. He gave no reason for the delay.

Veteran Robbed Of $1100 by Trio

Edward Tewhart, a 48-year-old World War veteran attached to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Bedford, was robbed of $1100 today by three bandits in a big gray sedan.

They forced Tewhart's auto off the road in the rear of the hospital grounds, shoved a gun in his face and forced him to hand over the money.

He had drawn it today from a bank in Billerica and was returning with it to the hospital.

Ex-Gov. Ely Fee $500 For Opposing Tax

Former Governor Joseph B. Ely, of Westfield, received a $500 fee from the Massachusetts Restaurant Association for opposing, before a legislative committee, a sales tax on food sold in restaurants, according to returns of registered lobbyists made public today by the Secretary of State.

Largest sums went to Atty. George L. Barnes. He obtained $1000 for appearing on insurance legislation; $2000 for appearing on changes in the unemployment compensation act, and $1000 for appearing on fire insurance legislation.

War Guns Mute Hub Wedding Bells

Rumblings of war in Europe today brought the threat of postponement of the wedding of Miss Harriet Sidney Fuller, pretty Beacon Hill socialite, scheduled to be married Sept. 18 in fashionable Emmanuel Church.

HARRIET S. FULLER
Wedding Delayed?

Miss Fuller's bridegroom-to-be, Keon E. Hughes of Orpington, Kent, England, had planned to arrive by liner in Boston on Sept. 12.

But with great liners tied up in British ports, with transatlantic travel practically at a standstill, with the confusion and chaos that alarm of war has brought across the seas, his arrival on schedule, members of the Fuller family admitted yesterday, is problematical.

"We have cabled Mr. Hughes, and he has told us that he hopes to be here on the scheduled date," a member of the Fuller family said yesterday, at the Brimmer st. home. "He had expected to bring with him a group of English relatives and friends, for the wedding.

"He has assured us that the liner on which he engaged passage has not yet been held in port. So we have every hope and expectation of his arrival. But we realize what conditions are, and that nothing can be certain. As yet, however, there has been no postponement in the marriage date."

Miss Fuller, a member of the Junior League and Vincent Club, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Fuller of Brimmer st., and a graduate of the Winsor School. Her fiance is a director of a British publishing house headed by his uncle, Sir Ernest Benn.

Child Stricken By Infantile

The first case of infantile paralysis in the Old Harbor Federal Housing Project in South Boston—home of hundreds of children—was discovered today.

Coincidental with the finding, Dr. Frederick J. Bailey, acting health commissioner, warned parents throughout the city to be on guard against the disease.

The symptoms, Dr. Bailey pointed out, are fever, nausea and stiffening of the limbs.

He said he was going to the housing project with a staff of 10 nurses to examine every child in the neighborhood.

Thomas Joyce, eight, of O'Callaghan way in the project, is the victim. He is at City Hospital. His is the second case of the disease in Boston this year. The first was a little Roxbury girl several weeks ago.

SCHOOL DAYS JUST WEEK AWAY

Children of one and a half years will be admitted to kindergarten in Boston's school system when schools open on Sept. 7.

For the first time the entering age for first grade has been put at five and a half years.

Arthur L. Gould, superintendent of schools, announcing that both the kindergarten and first grade had been overhauled and developed more scientifically, said studies had shown that bright children had been retarded because they had been admitted to school when too immature.

The age of admission to the new Vocational and Opportunity High School, housed in the old Continuation school building on Commonwealth av., South End, will be 14 years.

When the city's 127,000 children of school age report a week from today they will find 22 new classrooms available as well as a new gymnasium, several new shops and manual training rooms, a new assembly hall and several new school cafeterias.

Accommodations for 560 pupils have been provided in 16 new classrooms in the new addition to the William Howard Taft School in Brighton. Six new classrooms have been added to the Boston Trade School addition in Roxbury, accommodating 180 pupils.

Sept. 7 is the date for the opening of school in Boston, Hingham, Medford, Somerville and Wellesley.

School will open on Sept. 6 in Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Braintree, Chelsea, Cohasset, Concord, Dedham, Everett, Hull, Lawrence, Lexington, Malden, Melrose, Methuen, Milton, Needham, North Andover, North Reading, Norwood, Quincy, Reading, Stoneham, Wakefield, Waltham, Weymouth, Winchester, Winthrop and Woburn.

Probe Maine Train Wreck; 200 Safe

NEW GLOUCESTER, Me., Aug. 31—Two hundred boys and their camp counsellors, bound from Maine to their homes in Boston and New York in a special train, were safe today as authorities investigated the derailing of their train last night on a damaged trestle near here.

None of the passengers was hurt, although a few were shaken up, but all were congratulating themselves on a narrow escape from death.

The locomotive, tender, two baggage cars and three Pullman cars left the track before the train came to a halt.

The locomotive and tender struck soft ground adjoining the trestle and turned over on their sides. Edward Denham, the engineer, and I. C. Neilson, fireman, were injured slightly.

Denham reported he failed to see a signal waved in the dark by a State highway worker, Clayton Tufts, who observed that the tracks had been dislodged by a steam shovel passing beneath the trestle.

Tufts, without flares or flashlight, stood on the track and waved frantically, leaping to safety as the train approached. Officials said the top of the shovel had pushed the tracks four inches out of line.

Only those in the two forward Pullmans were shaken up. There was no disorder and the camp counsellors, after learning that there was no danger that any of the cars would topple over, closed the car doors and maintained order.

Squalus Orphan Pensions Urged

A resolution asking that the national department petition Congress to provide the same rate of pensions to the dependents of men whose lives were lost on the submarine Squalus as is given to dependents of veterans who died in the service of their country in time of war was presented to the convention by the State Department of Connecticut.

The resolution further commended the navy for its efficient work in saving 33 members of the crew through the safety bell device.

CIG BOOTLEGGERS TRAILED BY STATE

Huge stores of cigarettes and liquors have been stored in country barns and garages by "bootleggers" who hope to beat the new state taxes, it was asserted today by State Tax Commr. Henry F. Long.

His charge came as Massachusetts residents, in an 11th-hour rush to get in under the wire before the new taxes become effective tomorrow, were stocking up on smokes and drinks.

Long said, however, that he has "an enormous army of detectives" working in the interest of the state to prevent bootlegging and evasion of the taxes.

Long has learned, he revealed, that trucks are even standing loaded now in hidden barns and garages, ready for moving and for sale of the untaxed cigarettes and liquors to whatever unscrupulous dealers will purchase them.

"I believe, however, that we will catch enough so that it will not be pleasant for those who try it," Commissioner Long said.

"I have 500 employes in my department and I have made them all so tax conscious that they have all turned out to be detectives and have given me a great deal of information.

"The honest dealers are entitled to every protection that I can give them. They have turned detectives, too, and have tipped me off to where a great deal of this stuff is stored. It is for their own interests to do so, of course."

$5000 IN FEES

Long said he has already received $5000 in fees from tax licenses issued and that the figure is mounting steadily today.

The new taxes—one mill for each cigarette sold in the state, or two cents on each package of 20, and 95 cents a gallon on liquors instead of the old 40-cent tax are operative at the close of business today.

Excepted from additional taxes are beers, ales and still wines, however.

Tomorrow, when you step in for your cigarettes or your liquors, you must pay more as a result of the taxes—except that some of the tobacco manufacturers have announced that the two-cent tax will be absorbed, and that the consumer need pay no more than at present for certain brands.

The taxes are effective only until June 30, 1941, at the close of business on that day.

Any person who shall sell, offer for sale or possess with intent to sell cigarettes without a license after today and until the end of business on June 30, 1941, is liable to a fine of $50 for the first offense and not less than $50 nor more than $200 for each subsequent offense.

DEALERS CUT STOCKS

Any person, other than a licensed distributor, who shall sell any cigarettes in the state upon which the tax has not been paid shall be liable to double the mount of the tax.

And any person who shall knowingly purchase or possess any cigarettes not handled by a licensed distributor shall be subject to a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $1000.

It was learned today that retail dealers have been notified that they must pay the increased tax on all except 400 gallons of liquors on their premises at the end of business today—the difference between 40 cents already paid as a tax and the 95 cents constituting the new rate.

As a result, most of the dealers have been reducing their stocks during this week and putting in no new orders except when absolutely necessary to fill customer demand.

HELD—Mrs. Lorraine Cook, 24, whose husband is held for fatal slugging of Los Angeles dancer, Anya Sosoyeva, and attacks on other women. She herself is charged with suspicion of theft.

Demand Death For Youth Who Slew Dancer

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP)—Death in San Quentin prison's gas chamber, says District Attorney Buron Fitts, will be asked tomorrow for De Witt Clinton Cook, 20-year-old unemployed printer and confessed killer of Anya Sosoyeva, former follies dancer.

Moving swiftly to exact the state's penalty for the brutal bludgeon slaying, Fitts said he would demand the death sentence when Cook goes to court tomorrow for determination of the degree of a murder charge to which he pleaded guilty yesterday.

Miss Sosoyeva was killed last February on the campus of Los Angeles City College. A month later Delta Bagard, 17-year-old dancer, was struck down and robbed on a Hollywood street. Last week Myrtle Wagner, 17, a maid, was slugged and ravished.

Cook was arrested Monday night after a burglar was rejected fleeing from another house. Police said he confessed the three attacks and "about 200" burglaries.

Cook's mother, Mrs. Ruby Cook, 45, and his wife, Lorraine, 24, held for investigation since his arrest were released after questioning.

BLOWS KILLED N.H. WOMAN

Dr. William J. Brickley, Suffolk County medical examiner, disclosed today that Miss Valia Elizabeth Brunelle, 41, of Rochester, N. H., who died at the Deaconess Hospital, was killed under mysterious circumstances by a violent blow, or series of blows, on the head.

On completion of his autopsy, Dr. Brickley also declared that the woman met death on or about Aug. 14, the date on which a Rochester man was seen with her by a patrolman.

Meanwhile, the man in question, Harry J. Burleigh, 33, faced arraignment in New York city, where he was arrested by police as a fugitive from justice, in connection with Miss Brunelle's mysterious death.

Attorney General Thomas P. Cheney of New Hampshire, who headed the investigation, said a warrant for Burleigh had been issued and a copy sent to New York. Extradition papers are being prepared.

Police say that Burleigh was with the woman on the night of Aug. 14, when she was allegedly beaten. A patrolman heard a woman scream from behind a North Main st. building and found Burleigh and Miss Brunelle together when he investigated. He found no disturbance and the man and woman left, going in different directions.

Several days later Miss Brunelle complained of injuries to her head and face. Burleigh left Rochester and on Monday Miss Brunelle was taken in an ambulance to the Boston hospital where an operation was performed. She failed to rally after another emergency operation.

Officer Off His Toes After Escape

Winthrop police and Patrolman George Wendell in particular, today sought Walter Mooney, 29, of Marshall st., Winthrop, after a bold escape from the Winthrop police station.

Patrolman Wendell, who had known the prisoner for years, willingly went for water when Mooney, under arrest on a drunkenness charge, requested a drink. But when the cell door was opened, Mooney dashed out, knocking the officer down. The latter was treated for a sprained ankle.

Britain to Evacuate 3,000,000 for War

11,000,000 Affected In Evacuation Area

It has been decided to start evacuation of the school children and other priority classes as a ready arranged under the government's scheme tomorrow Friday Sept 1 So one short week elude that this decision means that war is now regarded as inevitable

Evacuation which will take several days to complete will be undertaken as a precautionary measure in view of the grave Even if the period of tension government is fully assured that the attitude of quiet confidence which the public have been playing will continue that no unnecessary movements which would interfere with the speed operation of the transport arrangements will take place and that all concerned in the receiving areas will entirely put aside every consideration of personal interest and convenience and do everything possible to contribute to the success of a great national undertaking

AREAS EVACUATED

Evacuation will be from the following areas Greater London which includes the London County Council area the county boroughs of West Ham and East Ham the boroughs of Wallington Beckenham Bexley and Barking, in Essex

The boroughs of Tottenham Hornsey Willesden Acton and Edmonton, in Middlesex the Medway towns of Chatham Gillingham and Rochester Dagenham Thurrock, Gravesend and Northfleet, Todmorden Gosport and Southampton, Barrow-in and Smethwick, Liverpool Bootle Birkenhead, Wallasey and Crosby

The first month and perhaps only the first fortnight of war in the air would be incomparably the most severe The idea of the Blitzkrieg (German for lightning war) the smashing blow at vital civil centers is not yet [illegible] played

SURPRISE VITAL TO RAID

Half of its effectiveness lies in surprise If the very worst period is to come first it is all the more important that the maximum evacuation should take place before hostilities have begun

The authorities sheek out [illegible] to evacuate the priority classes even if there is every hope that war will not come

It is estimated that all the [illegible] will be [illegible] for at least for two days and in some cases longer by the priority classes alone

At the same time, Fascists expressed fear that Polish action [illegible] would lead to [illegible] Germany.

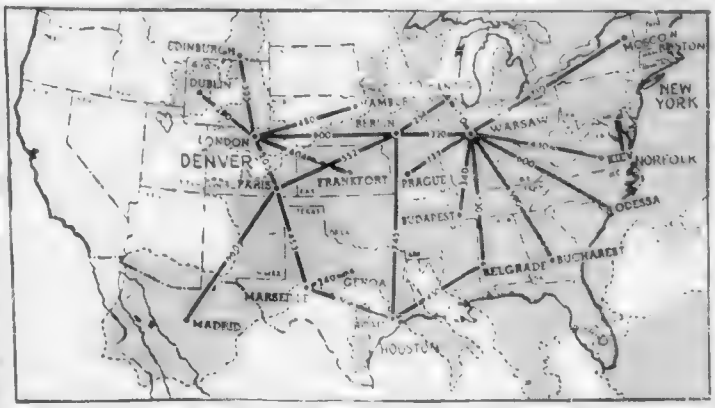
[illegible]

It is no longer the fate of the Free City which is in discussion. The question has widened and includes a problem of high justice.

"It is now desirable to give Europe a real peace and deal with all the problems which regard colonies, lines of communication and raw material in brief, to repair old and new errors."

Italy means [illegible]

If Europe Were Moved to America . . .



TROUBLE IN U. S.?—If Europe's near-conflict should be transplanted in the United States, its geographic aspect would assume the above proportions. A map of Europe does not cover the nation, only Spain reaching to the southwest corner of this country. Super-imposition of map shows the various distances between European capitals and how they would correspond with United States distances.

HITLER

BY THE EX-CHIEF OF GERMANY'S SECRET POLICE

...He is the real power behind the throne of Hitler!...Yesterday Hitler's gunman-in-chief! Tomorrow he may come rapping on the Fuehrer's door!...The visit of his agents to any country beyond the German borders is "the mark of death"...He commands the world's largest police force and its biggest private army...He is the soul of all three major persecutions in Germany—those of the Jews, Catholics and Protestants.

ACTORS OPEN WAR ON COAST

HOLLYWOOD Aug 31 (INS)—Hollywood today will become the focal point in the jurisdictional fight between actors and the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes.

President Ralph Morgan and Kenneth Thomson, secretary of the Screen Actors Guild, will arrive by [illegible] a charter of the American Federation of Actors, of which Sophie Tucker is president.

Immediately after their arrival, strike headquarters will be opened at the Masquers Club in Hollywood. Monday night is expected to be the picket hour.

Today, too, the actors' guild furthered itself by calling what it terms a strike mass meeting for Sunday night at Hollywood American Legion Stadium.

It was called by the combined [illegible] A. A. A. A. [illegible] Morgan of the [illegible] Eddie Cantor, president [illegible] American Federation [illegible] and the American [illegible] Actors; Arthur [illegible] of Actors Equity, [illegible] Antrim Lovett, president [illegible] the American Guild of Musical Artists.

CHELSEA, DEDHAM ELEVENS TO OPEN SCHOOL GRID YEAR

To Frank Garvey's Chelsea high school eleven will go the honor of ringing up the 1939 Massachusetts inter-scholastic pigskin campaign.

The Red Raider gridmen are scheduled to scuffle Dedham high school in an arc light set-to on Thursday evening, Sept. 14, at the spacious Chelsea Memorial Stadium.

Coach Garvey has had exactly 156 candidates out on the Chelsea turf for the last four days. And, when it rained yesterday, the veteran schoolmy mentor conducted a two-hour blackboard session in the stadium shower room.

Garvey has only three veterans back from the fine Chelsea machine that won 10 and dropped but a single contest last fall. These stalwarts are Capt. Eddie Glowacki, All-Scholastic halfback; Tony Marino, hunky 180 pound center, and Allen Myers, a burly 200-pound tackle.

GRIGAS MISSING

Gone from the Red Raiders ranks is Johnny Grigas, the lad who made a backfield berth in every all-scholastic team in the State in '38.

Still, Coach Garvey isn't too worried about his prospects for the opening season. Following a torrid practice session the other p.m. he said:

"Chelsea hasn't anything to fear this fall. True, we mightn't have as strong a team as in '38, but those type elevens come up only once in a lifetime.

"There is a lot of impressive material on hand this fall. Young Glowacki is a natural ball toter, while fellows like Marino and Myers can make any line powerful.

"Furthermore, there are 156 candidates out for the club and there should be a few top-flight performers in this group.

"I repeat. Don't allow Chelsea's chances for the new season to keep you awake nights. They'll do O. K."

As Garvey's first eleven shapes up at this date there are Johnny Zebroski and Billy Wilson, ends; Joe Chanet and Manny Castro, tackles; Walter Lenzi and Val Drieuzeuz, guards, and Joe Milona, center.

EYES STARS IN BACKFIELD

For his No. 1 backfield, there is Robert Eyes at fullback, Dan Sanko and Glowacki in the halfback slots and Zig Niecwicz at quarterback.

Outstanding reserves are Walter Kronson, Abe Braverman, William Nostle, Tony Paganila, William Chadwick, Mel Cohen, Charley Cifra, George Gallant and Bill Fitzpatrick.

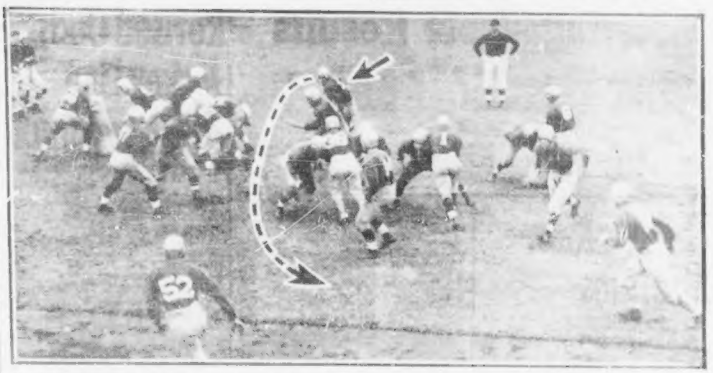
During the Chelsea blackboard session, Coach Garvey's two young twins, Connie and Steward, made more noise than the 156 candidates and coaches with their game of tag.

* * *

Garvey really is quite pleased with his team's chances for the '39 season. He was all smiles, even during yesterday's heavy downpour.



"HIT HARD"—That's the cry of Coach Warren McGuirk, Malden, shown in background, hands on hips. He's directing the Golden Tornado's pre-season work for the rugged ten-game schedule. If Malden can open up holes such as the back denoted by arrow, sees in this play, it will roll up plenty of yardage this fall.

Anderson Shows Special Tonight

New cars, new faces, special match races and the big 25-lap feature, a New England midget auto championship event, will highlight a brilliant night of racing at the Riverside Park Speedway, Medford, tonight.

Interest will be particularly high, not only for the fans but for the officials and drivers as well, in the new racing car which is being introduced by Mickey Lesberman of Bridgeport, Ct. The motor is in the rear of the car.

This car has never been in official competition, but if Lesberman can turn in a satisfying time trial tonight, the officials are expected to allow him to enter a qualifying race for the right to take part in the big 25-lap feature.

Rufe Anderson's special built racer will be shown at Medford for the first time tonight. Anderson has had great success with his famed No. 83, but felt that he could construct a faster car and has spent seven months constructing this car. Rufe will drive his new racer tonight and let Joe Sostilio guide his No. 83 car.

YANKS INVINCIBLE, SAYS RAY BLADES

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (INS)—Mr. Ray Blades, the baldish old cutup who superintends St. Louis Cardinal strategy, had several cutting remarks for world opinion apropos the Cincinnati Reds and the unwisdom of heaving his horseshiders out of the National League pennant perambulation at this date.

Blades also razored the throat of the senior limp when he showed the bleakest scepticism of being asked how he figured the chances of the Reds in a World Series with New York's brutish Yankees.

"We haven't given up yet by any means in spite of the tough going we've had lately," stoutly protested Mr. Blades whose heroes have succeeded in banking but three of their past 10 tussles. "We're not conceding the flag to Cincinnati. Why should we? There's still a month to go and plenty can happen.

"Don't forget that before we hit the skids, we had been going remarkably well, and I'm hoping for another stretch like that. The fellows were worn down by too many double-headers and riding from town to town. Then Lon Warneke got the grippe and had to leave the team, which didn't help our pitching at all.

REDS JUST ORDINARY

"Just think back over the last several years and consider the teams that folded in the closing days of the season when it looked as though the flag was sewed up. Last year it was Pittsburgh. The Reds are only an ordinary club. There's nothing great about them.

"We've split 16 games with Cincinnati this season and we've tied one," Manager Blades presented his argument for continued optimism. "We have six games remaining with the Reds, four in Cincinnati and two in St. Louis. These games will be our big chance.

"Cincinnati has no super team. They've got two brilliant pitchers, Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer, who account for the club's present position.

Why, Walters and Derringer have recorded more than half of the Reds' victories. Don't quote me as saying the Reds aren't a good club. They are good. But they definitely aren't a great team and don't measure up to the pennant-winning Cardinal teams of 1926, 1928, 1930, 1931 and 1934.

COUNT ON PITCHERS

"How a team like Cincinnati would go against the Yankees depends on whether Walters and Derringer could click in a short series," the baldishboss straightened out a question mark and threw it back at us.

"But they'd have to hold the Yankees to very few runs, because the Reds wouldn't get very many to help them.

"A team would need plenty of breaks to beat the Yankees in the World Series. They've got everything, power, pitching, fielding. If you take the Yanks man for man, there's not a club to compare with them. As a matter of fact, if you picked an all-star National League club, I don't think it could compare with the Yankees."

Grid Coaches Honor Stagg

STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 31 (AP)—Plans for a reunion and banquet September 16 by Big Ten Conference alumni in Northern California in honor of Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg of the College of the Pacific have been announced.

Dr. Miles J. McClelland of Sacramento, president of the Northern California Big Ten society will preside. Stagg's fellow coaches and Yale men will be honored guests to celebrate the start of the grand old man's 50th year as a football coach. Stagg was graduated from Yale.

Sullivan Ordered To Brewer Nine

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31—The Milwaukee Brewers announced they had obtained Paul Sullivan, left-handed pitcher, from the Cleveland Indians to report next spring.

Manager Mickey Heath said the Brewers had asked the Williamsport club of the Eastern League to return Rush Hawkins, catcher-outfielder, if his return would not interfere with Williamsport's play-off chances.

Casterline Tests Car at Topsfield

Eddie Casterline of Malden, who handles a big car just as easy as the midget, will whirl over the Topsfield Fair Grounds track Sunday and Monday morning in a trial spin for the Labor Day 15-mile grind.

Though such expert drivers of the East, including Jerry May, Schenectady, N. Y.; Joe Verberly, Bound Brook, N. J.; Gene Trinque, Mapleville, R. I.; Bud Hardt and George Bouley, Waterbury, Ct.; Sonny Martin, Bangor, Me.; Lee Allen of Troy, N. Y., and Charlie Reynolds, Buffalo, N. Y., will be in the field, Casterline has challenged the field.

With entries received from every state in New England and New York, New Jersey, officials of the Northeast Racing Association expect a record list.

Time trials will start at 1 p. m. so as to start the other races as near 2:30 o'clock as possible.

Gotham Angler Lands 868 Pound Tuna

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Nova Scotia News Bureau reported that J. Frank Johnson of N. Y., had made a new record for bluefin tuna when he officially landed a 868 pounder off Liverpool, N. S.

It was the first tuna caught by Johnson in his first day's fishing at Liverpool and broke the record of 804 pounds set off North Shelburne, N. S., last year by Alfred Kenny of Shelburne.

Stellar Prelim Card for 'Stars' Redskins Game

As is the usual custom with all Crosscup Pishon sponsored shows, a highly entertaining and spectacular preliminary program will usher in the All-Star-Redskin football game on Monday evening, September 11, at Fenway Park.

Bill Coker has been busying himself in gathering a flock of outstanding attractions to head the main event. From a local standpoint the footward passing contest for Greater Boston schoolboys is perhaps the most interesting feature.

One boy from each team in Boston and Suburban Boston will be selected by his coach to represent the high school team which he comes. The winner of the contest will receive a large silver statue emblem. Joe McKenney, the former B. C. coach, is in charge of this event.

The evening's entertainment will get under way at 7:30 p. m., when Walter Brown's fine Boston Olympets, New England's best girls softballers, trot out to meet their sister team the Gardenias, in a seven-inning tilt for the championship of Boston.

Another unusual feature will be Hans Tossutti's exhibition of Obedience Drill for dogs. Hans is the oldest trainer of dogs in this section of the country, and many of his animals are now performing in Hollywood, where the coming of sound has made it necessary to command the canines by motion rather than word of mouth.

The American Legion bands of Arlington and Medford will provide the music, both during the entertainment and the football game.

The process of lining up more preliminary entertainment is still going on, and many more acts will make their bow on Sept. 11.

ALICE MARBLE BEATS BRITON IN ESSEX PLAY

MANCHESTER, Aug. 31 (AP)—Defying glowering skies and a northeast gale, play was resumed in the Essex County women's invitation tennis tournament today with defending Alice Marble of Beverly Hills, Cal., pacing the parade into the semi-finals.

The American Wimbledon women's champion made short work of Nina Brown of England, the fourth-seeded foreigner, winning without pressure just as she has here all week, 6—2, 6—0.

Mrs. Freda James Hammersley, another member of the British Wightman Cup team, became Miss Marble's opponent in the semi-final brackets a short time later, climbing uphill to overcome the veteran Mme. Sylvia Henrotin of France, 6—8, 6—4, 6—3.

A third member of the English Wightman Cup delegation, Valerie Scott, given top-seeding because of her upset victory over Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline in the international matches last week, pulled up to quarter-final level by defeating Katherine Winthrop of Manchester, 6—2, 6—3.

Miss Scott, top-ranking foreign entry, was extended yesterday in an exhausting match to defeat youthful Hope Knowles of Philadelphia, 7—5, 11—9. Miss Winthrop, on the other hand, had a day off at singles, while scoring two doubles victories.

THIRD ROUND

Valerie Scott, England, defeated Katherine Winthrop, Boston, 6—2, 6—3.

QUARTER-FINAL ROUND

Alice Marble, Beverly Hills, defeated Nina Brown, England, 6—2, 6—0.

Mrs. Freda James Hammersley, England, defeated Mme. Sylvia Henrotin, Paris, France, 6—8, 6—4, 6—3.

Sport Stars Show for Scots

With one of the best cards ever offered the Order of Scottish Clans of Boston and vicinity hold their 50th annual set of Highland games and picnic at Caledonian Grove, West Roxbury, Labor Day.

This being "Jubilee" year, the Scots have spread themselves with track events for men and women, five a side soccer, Pipe Band contests and all the many and varied dances and bagpipe playing competition for the Scots all over the States and Canada and fans who follow these games.

The Ford Pipe Band of Dearborn, Mich., rated by experts as the best in this country, is entered for the big prize. Thousands of domiciled Scots will make it their business to hear the Boston Scottish Highlanders, Boston Caledonian Club and Kevin Barry Irish Pipe Band of this city.

The B. A. A. has entered quite an array of talent, including Don Fleet, Dick Gill, R. Folsom, T. Callahan, M. Vincent and F. Zmiltz. They will compete in the 100-220-440-880 and Walter Scott Mile. All entries should be made with Andrew G. Wright, 151 West Elm ave., Wollaston.

Dodgers Draw Up Reserves

BROOKLYN, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced the immediate recall of Pitcher Bill Crouch, a righthander, from the Montreal Royals in the International League.

Van Lingle Mungo, the veteran fireballer, who had been in his Pageland, S. C., home while a broken bone mended in his left foot, also rejoined the club, and vowed he was ready to lend his strong right hand to aiding the Dodgers in their final drive.

IRISHMEN FADE

BELFAST, Aug. 31 (AP)—Scoring all three goals in the second half, Scottish League footballers defeated the Irish League representative team, 3-2. The Irishmen held a 1-0 first half lead but faded in the final 45 minutes.

U. S., Aussie Net Teams Show Growing Strain

HAVERFORD, Pa., Aug. 31 (INS)—Cheered by forecasts of fair skies and warmer temperatures, the rain-haunt United States and Australian Davis cup squads today prepared to take to the stadium courts at Merion Cricket Club for much-needed practice.

The eight players who will compete for the greatest prize in tennis this week-end obviously were under a mounting strain, and their captains sent them into brisk indoor sessions.

AUSSIES WORK OUT

The challenging Anzac team—Capt. Harry Hopman, John Bromwich, Adrian Quist and Jack Crawford—drilled with the U. S. doubles team of Joe Hunt and Jack Kramer at a clay court in nearby Ardmore.

Bobby Riggs and Frank Parker—America's hopes for helping retain the cup in singles—toured in practice form to observers as they worked out on cork composition courts at Penn Athletic Club.

Elwood Cooke, Wimbledon sensation, raked Parker's right hand court in an effort to bolster Frankie's new but slightly wobbly forehand drive. Unofficial Coach Mercer Beasley lent his encouraging presence.

CHALLENGERS READY

Meanwhile, odds of 3 to 1 still favored the Australians to defeat the defending United States outfit, youngest cup squad in history at an average age of less than 21.

Even Capt. Hopman, despite his previous protest against the odds, concedes the Aussies are "ready" for the three-day matches.

$7500 Handicap At Washington Pk.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP)—Chicago's first match race since 1935 brought together Flying Lill and Unerring in a mile test for a $7500 purse over Washington Park's racing strip.

The three-year-old fillies each were down for 110 pounds with Flying Lill, owned by Charles H. Cleary of Chicago, the likely favorite because of victories over Unerring in two previous meetings.
